

Lisa Quest
Partner,
Market Head for UK&I

Lisa Quest is the Market Head for UK&I and European Head of the Public Sector Practice for Oliver Wyman.

Lisa has over 15 years of experience consulting in the UK, Continental Europe and North America. She has worked with top government officials, chief executives and other senior leaders of the world's leading organisations and governments on topics spanning digital transformation, governance, strategy, financial planning, risk management and public policy & regulatory response.

Lisa led Oliver Wyman's Anti-Financial Crime practice as well as our Public Sector Governance and Transformation platforms, representing each of these businesses on the firm's European Leadership Team.

Lisa has advised senior government leaders and policy makers on topics of industry competitiveness and stability and co-authored many articles and studies, including supporting the IBFed on BigTech entrance into Financial Services, Impact of Digitalisation of the economy on regulatory structures and future of supervision.

Lisa is a keen advocate of inclusion and a sponsor of diversity – she sits on the firm's inclusion council, is executive sponsor of Oliver Wyman's Women of Oliver Wyman and was shortlisted for Mentor of the Year by Management Today Magazine and names on of the Top 100 Female Executives on the HERos list.

Lisa is also a Visiting Academic Fellow at the London School of Economics, Centre for Risk and Regulation. She holds a First Class Honours degree in Business Administration from the Richard Ivey School of Business at the University of Western Ontario, Canada and a Masters degree in Public Administration in European Public and Economic Policy from the London School of Economics.